Glamping

Gambledown Farm | Romsey SO51 6JU

Bookings: www.gambledownfarm.co.uk

Gambledown Farm safari tents open onto the living, dining and kitchen area, where a wood-fired stove keeps the space lovely and warm in the chillier months. There's also a comfy sofa to relax on and a dining area.

Sleeping arrangements consist of a master bedroom with king sized bed and a second bedroom with the choice of either twins beds or a bunkbed. A cosy double cupboard bed is tucked into the wall which easily sleeps two children. Each tent is fitted with an internal bathroom; a hot water shower, normal flushing loo and basin.

A fire pit for huddling round on tree stumps, toasting marshmallows is positioned outside, and a sizeable front deck, perfect for taking in the scenic views. Glamping essentials such as extra fire logs, coal, matches, firelighters, marshmallows, Gambledown meat, local cider, wine, local ice cream, and tea & coffee can all be bought on site in our farm shop.

Gambledown Farm, practicing sustainable farming, is a traditional Hampshire mixed farm with a resident herd of over 30 Shorthorn cattle, arable crops and ancient woodland.

The Meadow Glamping | Broughton SO20 8AT

Bookings: www.themeadowglamping.co.uk

The Meadow is nestled in a quiet corner of Broughton, Hampshire, a two acre idyllic, peaceful, tucked away site, yet still close to the convenience of this typical English country village.

Whether you prefer to take the rowing boat for a short lap around the lake, play tennis on the grass court, or sit quietly reading a book by the lake, your time at The Meadow is your own to relax and enjoy the stunning setting as you wish.

There are three units Wild Billy's which is an original showmans wagon, Mary's place a converted wooden summer house and The Magic Rat an original 23ft Springer Narrow Boat, now moored by its own private island.

Each unit is spread over 2 acres which allows plenty of room to spread out and relax in your own private glamping area. Each unit has its own bedroom, large outdoor area with seating, firepits and cooking facilities (including cover from the elements) and your own river side seating to watch the trout and ducklings cruise by on the Wallop Brook.

You may decide to cook amazingly tasty local buffalo burgers over the fire pit under the stars or you can opt to take a short stroll to the local pub for a meal or a tipple. Perhaps then finish your evening cosying up in front of the wood burner with a hot chocolate, or a large glass of wine.

Bentley's Frenchmoor Lane

West Tytherley Shepherds Huts, West Tytherley SP5 1NU

Bookings: www.bentleysfrenchmoor.co.uk

wPeter and Georgie's 8 acre smallholding adjacent to the 1,700 acre Bentley Wood in West Tytherley is the most idyllic retreat for your stay – and they want to share its beauty and tranquillity with you.

The name represents the local area. The smallholding is adjacent to part of the Bentley Wood – gifted into trust by Lady Colman (Colman's Mustard) hence the name "Bentley's" was born.

The beautifully hand crafted hut which sits on cast iron wheels in a field of its own was made by Blackdown (the finest manufacturer). It is clad in feather edged oak, insulated with sheep's wool, features hand crafted oak units and fittings, together with the magical pull-down double bed and en-suite shower.

The hut also has a log burner to keep you snug and warm. As if that is not enough, the stunning curved glass ceiling above the bed enables you can continue stargazing long into the night, wrapped up in your Hungarian goose down duvet.

In the summer you can star gaze whilst relaxing in the wood-fired hot tub with a bottle of prosecco!
