

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: COUNT BOX SUPERVISOR

Accountable to: the relevant RETURNING OFFICER

Purpose of Job: To make up count boxes of verified ballot papers, ready for the Count.

Principal Accountabilities:

Before Election Day

1. Accept your appointment and read and agree to the terms of the Requirement of Secrecy.
2. Provide documentary evidence to Electoral Services of your eligibility to work in the UK.
3. Attend any briefing session as and when required.

During the Verification and Count

1. You will be required to be on duty at the times as outlined in your appointment letter – in the event that the verification and/or count takes longer than anticipated, you will be required to remain on duty until completion.
2. To make up an advised number of count boxes from the verified ballot papers, ensuring that a roughly equal number of ballot papers are in each box.
3. Each box to be clearly marked up with the number of ballot papers inside.
4. Once the agreed number of ballot papers are in the box, to seal the box.
5. To follow any other procedures as instructed by Electoral Services.
6. You will be required to assist with clearing the count hall after the Verification and/or Count has finished.

Payment

Payment will be made through the Council's payroll system into your bank account on the date as advised on your appointment letter.

NB The particular duties and responsibilities attached to posts are of necessity in many cases somewhat difficult to define in detail, and may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the duties or the level of responsibility entailed.

Health and Safety

Every employee while at work has a duty to take reasonable care for the health and safety of himself/herself and of other persons who may be affected by his/her acts or omissions at work - Health and Safety at Work Act 1974.

Equalities

The Returning Officer is committed to providing equal opportunities for all with the belief that employing people from different backgrounds with a range of perspectives and experiences helps to deliver high quality, accessible elections to all our residents. Election workers are appointed based on their abilities, regardless of any protected characteristics.

Data Protection and Data Security

As part of the election process, the personal data of voters will be held and processed on behalf of the Returning Officer. As such, workers are legally obliged to protect that information in line with GDPR.