General

Paras 5.26-5.27

Whilst it is noted that the distribution of future housing will be addressed in subsequent stages of the LP it is clear that there is the opportunity of redefining the settlement boundaries to provide additional housing and development in order to meet the requirements of the NPPF (to include the requirements as set out in para 69) and the needs of the local community.

Such possibilities include those sites that border roads and motorways where an existing countryside allocation may not be as relevant as it once was. An example is the parcel of land to the south east of the junction of the M27 and M271 and to the north of the Four Horseshoes Public House, Nursling Street, Nursling where adjoining land is being developed. Thus, land could be usefully developed and incorporated into the existing settlement without apparent harm to the countryside.
