Good afternoon,

I wish to add comments on the up-and-coming consultation. The main road Saxon fields road (Saxon way)is extremely busy as it is at the moment , how will it cope with Another 800 houses?

Where is the logic it building another housing estate in the middle of two villages ?

Are there not more suitable areas for such a development rather than in the middle of two quiet village areas?

Local secondary school already over subscribed, and now people who live in Enham potentially will not get a place because of 800 houses being built that will be closer to said school.
