

24 February 2025

I have no intention of rescinding my objection to the stopping up order Re 6126. On the contrary. Today I witnessed a large group of students crossing West Street, many of them engaged in mobile phone contact many unaware of the dangers. I believe that the proposed plan for two way traffic on West Street will lead to fatalities.